

JOIN STUDY TOUR WITH STUDENTS FROM USA!

Association for Culture, Education and Communication (ACEC)
and Wisconsin Green Bay University are seeking for 4 Slovak outstanding English speaking students to join USA nursery students from on their

SLOVAKIA SUMMER 2018 TRAVEL COURSE „ROMA IN SLOVAKIA“

Students from United States Wisconsin Green Bay University, whose field of study is Community nursing will be visiting Slovakia as part of their studies. During the study course, they will be visiting community centers for people from marginalised Roma communities, hospitals, senior houses, nurseries, Roma settlements and other places.

This unique service-learning program is structured to provide students with a rich introduction to Slovakia and a special emphasis on the Roma community with a side trips to the beautiful cities of Vienna, Krakow, and the Danube River, High Tatras Mountains and historic castles. Students will participate in presentations and discussions with Slovak/Roma guest speakers to better understand the cultural, social, and health issues within the vulnerable Roma population in Slovakia, practice population-based nursing interventions within the Roma community and clinic settings, and, in addition, they will plan and teach a disease prevention or health promotion topic within the Roma community with populations of children, elderly, and those with chronic illnesses.

When: June 9-17, 2018
